

In this 8-session study, Elizabeth Woodson shows how all 66 books of the Bible come together to form one unified narrative. Through the rich theological truths found in Genesis through Revelation, we'll see the eternal significance of what God is doing in the world and how He invites us to be a part of it.

