

GROWING UP IS NEVER EASY.

God's will is not just for you to be born again but to become a spiritual adult. This requires intentional cooperation with the Holy Spirit through various stages and seasons of life. The process may be painful at times. But it's much easier to endure if you know why it's happening. This six-session Bible study will help you understand sanctification and maximize God's work to conform you into the image of Christ.

LifeWay